Topic: SB769

It's common sense to protect yourself against a predator who is killing human beings. There is no exception se not to protect ourselves. Cougars, while being beautiful and majestic creatures are just that. Creatures. We as humans have every God given right to eradicate a wild animal who destroys human life. Stop bowing to liberal ideology. Human life is clearly more important than the life of an animal. Wake up. I'm f it was your child being mauled, would you sit by and watch?
