On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

Much like civil disobedience, a strike should be taken in only the most serious of circumstances and with the understanding that participating in a strike comes with real sacrifice. SB916 allows people to strike for the lamest of reasons, knowing that taxpayers and their employer will pay their wages. Not to state the obvious, this is merely indebted legislators throwing a bone to their financial backers, and should be rejected out of hand by the Committee.
