Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB604

Destination Western is so important, it helped me feel comfortable in my choice and helped me build life-long friends. It is so important for first generation students like myself and people who have never imagined themselves in college and people who are coming from far away. Having the opportunities in Destination Western to feel comfortable, build connections, and gain knowledge of what to expect in college has what has made me want to stay in school and ensured it was the right choice for me.
