I'm concerned about the lack of foresight demonstrated generally in politics these days. I'm disappointed today that more people in power neither share nor seem to understand the concept of shared responsibility for our presence here on Earth. Like we protect our homes we need but often forget to protect our environment, near and far because the consequences of we do not respect Mother Earth at the top the trickle down effect will impact us all, every single living thing on this planet, negatively beyond all "expectations". Please close the loophole allowing some few the advantage over what would be a better choice for more of us. We are ALL part of ONE Nature.
