To appeal the crime of harassment is inviting more lawlessness and putting woman and children and seniors in danger of abuse by criminals across the state. Also to reduce offences to violations also invites lawlessness especially for sex offenders who prey on the most vulnerable. This bill is as crazy as it gets. No on this one. If anything we need to enforce and make crime more punishable not less. Common sense is needed here. While you're at it Recriminalize drugs and build bigger jails.
