

Submitter: Meg Hummon

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1007

Our legal system sometimes makes mistakes. When someone is convicted and then proven innocent, they should be compensated in an efficient system. They cannot reclaim the time lost in wrongful incarceration, or avoid the negative consequences on themselves and their families, but at least should receive compensation in a timely way. I hope this bill will aid in that goal.