Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2995

This is ludacris. Disadvantaged groups don't need some brain trust to sit around in struggle sessions bemoaning "inherit bias" and the like, burning precious tax dollars paid by those very same disadvantaged groups, only to end up wasting money, except to continue the blame game, offering no productive, long-term solutions. What ALL people need is a solid educational foundation, a skill, and opportunity, not another handout that ultimately would shortchange someone along the way. We already have every conceivable law against discrimination. The best thing government can do is to get out of the way. The word "discrimination" has been bastardized beyond recognition, and is most often used these days as battering those who simply disagree. I DO NOT consent to this measure!
