HB3012

This is ridiculous Bill. This about the same as the redistricting debacle we have in this state. We do not want our children choosing who sets the rules for them. They themselves do not consider themselves adults until they reach 35 years of age. It seems the left only want the children to vote on things when the wind of change is in their favor. I am absolutely 100% against this HB3012. Let kids be kids until they are mature enough to make decisions on their own.
