

Submitter: Emily Bauer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

It is so important that during a labor dispute workers have the financial security to hold their ground. Without the financial backup of unemployment benefits, management can coerce workers to come back to unacceptable conditions by just delaying until workers are unable to support themselves and their families.