

Submitter: Logan Glass

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

Providing unemployment pay during labor disputes would empower workers to defend their rights. They could demand safe and equitable working conditions without sacrificing their own wellbeing and that of those who depend on them. It's a good idea and the legislature should pass this bill to ensure it.