

Submitter: Sarah Segal

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3365

Climate Change education is more important than ever. As a middle school teacher, students are acutely aware that events in our environment are not normal and are troublesome. Knowledge is power, and climate change education is essential at all grade levels.