Topic: SB78

Good afternoon,

I am opposed to this bill because of the impact it will have on homeowners. The state, county, and city (if applicable) wield tremendous power on influencing how homes are built. To limit a home size after being lost to a natural disaster is a double "whammy" on affected homeowners. I don't believe the government should influence how a homeowner rebuilds. When does the overreach by government cease.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Michael Hooper
