To Oregon Legislators,

I am writing to oppose the proposed bill to change our current initiative process in Oregon. Oregon's initiative process empowers citizens on all parts of the political spectrum put forth proposed legislation to serve our state. Additional restrictions will curtail the open marketplace of ideas by adding additional hoops and providing a minority veto power.

As someone who lived east of the Cascades for many years, I can affirm that this proposed legislation is not in the interest of our state which promotes citizen involvement and innovation.

Thank you,
Margaret Roland
