

Submitter: Janis Hootman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2423

School nurses have been struggling for decades to address this issue which takes time away from direct student services, creates discord in effective relationships with parents, education and health professionals & the school & larger communities; a process to address concerns is overdue.