

Submitter: Kenneth Steinbacher
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care
Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2029

For most clients the only way to access mental health services is through the use of insurance. More and more counselors are choosing not to panel with insurance because the risk of clawback is just too high which in turn makes it more difficult to access care. Protecting counselors helps everyone.