

Submitter: Heidi McKay

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3444

The public school system isn't doing right by our children. Charter schools have some freedoms to experiment with new teaching and educational strategies which are case studies that can help us improve schools over all. The teachers and administrators at these charter schools work just as hard to educate our youth and financial equity should be without question.