

Steven Smith

stevenalans@gmail.com

Salem, OR

I know several people who have been residents of Oxford House in Oregon. I believe that Oxford House offers a necessary housing option for people in recovery. There is a tremendous need for the opportunities that Oxford House provides to a vulnerable segment of our population.

I am opposed to HB 2239

The certification process and standards of Oxford House Incorporated should be held on equal footing as the NARR certification.