This tyranny must end. We need to stop assaulting our farmers. Oregon used to be a beautiful place to live, now it has become a destination to leave. Stolen elections have consequences and we are living through them now. The only way this ends is to end the mail in ballots. Since the inception of mail in votes, our beautiful state has been ran into the ground. That is the beautiful thing about time. Time reveals all truths. And nothing is more true than the situation our state is in. Leave our farmers alone. The only thing we should be discussing is how to remove some regulations on our farmers not add more.
