

Submitter: Serena Brigante

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB697

If this were to pass, then you should raise the age of military service to 21. If we can send our troops to war at 18, we should be able to arm our (older) children while teaching them safety and responsibility. Again, this is an issue that would limit some people's ability to defend themselves against someone more equipped to cause harm. Criminals don't care about laws or the ages of their victims.