HB 3595- Makes Lunar New Year an Oregon State Holiday.
Pays state workers as an additional holiday.

OPPOSE

Oppose Lunar New Year designated as an Oregon State Holiday.
Oregon already has 11 paid holidays for state workers and they accrue additional vacation time off to use as they please.

PER Oregon DAS HR Policy:

Subject to supervisory approval, an employee may be granted time off to observe a religious or cultural holiday not recognized as a paid holiday.

Employees may use vacation leave, personal business leave, compensatory time leave, leave without pay, or with supervisory approval, modify their work schedule.

I oppose this action.
