

Submitter: Ian McCabe

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB243

A state police study on the efficiency of background checks is time consuming and takes law enforcement away from other important work. The time and money needed to create committees and compile data is not needed. Plenty of background check information is already available.