I'm writing to support increased funding for schools in Oregon. My son's school is losing its assistant principal, who has been a great ally to my son in dealing with a troubled kid that was bothering him. Unfortunately behavior problems in schools are incredibly common right now, and it's tough to find out my son's school is losing a fantastic asset for addressing them. Please fund the schools appropriately so kids that have behavior problems can get discipline and support instead of making the kids have to deal with it. Thank you.
