Vote by mail is essential to ensuring all Oregonians have the opportunity to exercise this critical, inalienable right free from the disruptions posed by daily life and with all the time and resources they need to make a fully informed decision. There is nothing wrong with the system as it is. Anyone attempting to impede Oregon's vote by mail process is doing so in bad faith. There are so many other more pressing issues and broken systems in our state, stop wasting time and money trying to fix something that isn't broken.
