

Submitter: Kiera Radman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Vote by mail increases voter turnout. The purpose of elections is to hear from voters. Isn't higher voter turnout a more accurate representation of what constituents actually want? Why would we repeal something that is effective?

Personally, I find voting by mail significantly more convenient and I think it makes it much easier to research candidates and ballot measures before voting