

Submitter: Alice Sellers

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Repealing mail-in voting is the stupidest idea I've ever heard, and there are not enough words to express how strongly I oppose this utterly idiotic idea. This is an obvious attempt at voter suppression. It is our right to vote, and needlessly enacting obstacles to make it harder for people to exercise this right is reprehensible and transparently corrupt. We have one of the highest voter turnouts in the nation due to mail-in voting. The process is secure and accessible, and doesn't require the inconvenience and expense of setting up and staffing polling stations. There is literally no benefit to returning to mail-in voting unless you're a wormy little coup-praising Republican who knows you can't get support unless you disenfranchise the majority of the people who rightly hate you. Stop wasting everyone's time with this crap, David, and consider focusing on something that would actually benefit the people rather than just your own self... you know, like what your job is supposed to be. Pathetic.