The voting mechanism is the most central piece of a representative government. Of the people, by the people, very clearly stated. There is nothing, nothing at all limiting this voting mechanism, the most basic right in a representative government. In Oregon, we have a spectacular, easy, wildly secure, and very very popular method of implementing this voting mechanism. It works. We get great voter turnout and thus the will of the people are represented. We get incredibly low fraud, such that it's never actually in question. All the things a representative government could ever want are enshrined in our vote by mail system.

So... Unless you wish to stand up and declare that you are not in facor of representative government in America, then put this asinine authoritarian garbage away and leave our strong fair system alone.
