

Submitter:

Byron Qi

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Eliminating mail-in voting increases the barriers to voting, particularly for the less affluent unable to dedicate hours standing in line, those experiencing disabilities, residents currently traveling out of state, etc, all of which decreases the efficacy with which our democracy represents its constituents.