

WorldOregon

WorldOregon is a Global Ties Network Community-Based Member and an implementer of the U.S. Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP), our country's flagship professional exchange program.

Portland, OR

WorldOregon serves the state of Oregon and southwest Washington. The work of WorldOregon supports U.S. foreign policy and benefits the local economy through international exchange programs.

WorldOregon turned $140,347 in federal funds for the International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) into $1,482,855 in local economic impact in FY 2023.*

Local economic impact is based on self-reported data, which captures how core federal funding for the IVLP is leveraged into additional funding, in-kind support, and local spending in U.S. communities over the course of a year.*

An Investment with Big Impact

Hosted 361 global leaders through IVLP.

Engaged 371 local volunteers, who gave 1,968 hours of service to support these exchanges.

Arranged 103 professional meetings for global leaders to exchange expertise on foreign policy priorities, and 1,618 cross-cultural activities.

When China is outspending the United States in influencing foreign publics worldwide, WorldOregon supports the United States in building alliances to combat transnational threats and boost economic prosperity.
