Support workers; pass this bill. People strike because their working conditions are unsafe; they are over-worked to the point of exhaustion; they are not paid a living wage, or do not get increased pay based on inflation or cost-of-living increases. UC would provide some income during negotiations with employers.

I urge lawmakers to pass Senate Bill 916 to support striking workers in Oregon.

Workers strike only after every other option has been exhausted. In many cases, they continue working under expired contracts for months or years, making sacrifices because they care about their jobs. SB 916 is a simple, fair measure to ensure that when workers must strike, they don't face total financial devastation.

Employers often use healthcare benefits as a weapon in labor disputes. Cutting off healthcare during a strike puts workers and their families in an impossible situation. Unemployment benefits are a reasonable safeguard that will prevent workers from falling into crisis while they stand up for fair wages and conditions.

This bill is low-cost, does not significantly impact employers, and would result in shorter strikes and fairer contracts. Oregon should pass SB 916 and support its workers.
