

Submitter: David Ranaghan

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1003

It sounds as if Oregon is taking the Suicide Parlor scene from Soylent Green, and enshrining it into state culture. This smacks of Eugenics with a smiley face, anything to get that pesky human population down. Apparently the proponents of this bill weren't able to get an adequate body count with the old law, so they're inviting the neighbors in to kill themselves. God help us.