Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB243

I'm a 66 year old Democrat who owns many guns. As a law-abiding adult of sound mind I cherish my right to own those guns. And, I support all reasonable gun management laws. As a U.S. citizen I have a right own firearms. I also have a citizen's responsibility to my community to help people feel safe from guns. I think the proposed laws are reasonable. And I think the legislature should do more to actually address the causes of gun violence, which are NOT addressed by this bill.

I'll just add, that I consider myself a very good bell weather of the average American's stance on gun regulation, and I'd be very happy to serve as a citizen at large on any legislative committee working on gun management regulation.
