Dear Members of the Oregon Legislature,

I strongly oppose any proposed tax increase due to the state's consistent mismanagement of existing tax revenues. Oregonians already bear a significant tax burden, yet we see persistent inefficiencies, wasteful spending, and a lack of accountability in how our funds are allocated. From bloated administrative costs to poorly prioritized projects, the legislature has failed to demonstrate fiscal responsibility.

Raising taxes without addressing these systemic issues is unacceptable. I urge you to focus on auditing current expenditures, eliminating waste, and ensuring transparency before burdening Oregon families and businesses with higher taxes. We deserve better stewardship of our hard-earned money. NO MORE ASININE TAXATION!

Aggravated citizen, Zack Hordichok
