I oppose raising taxes and registration fees right now. Instead I hope that our government will look for solutions involving the current funding being used for repairs to our roads and bridges while ODOT spending is researched and redistributed among the necessary projects.

The cost of living in Oregon has gone up exponentially. I am a 5th generation Oregonian and I am at the point I am considering relocating because I cannot afford to live here anymore. We are already struggling and as a rural person I will feel it more than others since I have to drive to get anywhere, plus I have several vehicles since I have a farm.

Oregonians are against this raise in taxes, please do what the taxpayers are asking you to do. The taxpayers are the bread and butter of this state.
