I oppose raising taxes to cover the debt that ODOT has incurred. Raising taxes Oregonians especially families who make less than $70,000 a year hurts them. Cost living is too high for this state.

Look for money elsewhere like an audit of why ODOT does not know where the money goes to keep the roads in this area safe. Why is safety not high on ODOT priority list. Cut out the fat of this budget and there will be money to fix the roads.

Raising taxes does not solve the problems that the government has created.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

April Beaudin
