We already are among the top ten states by tax rate and by total state budget. Respectfully, no, we do not need more taxes. You need to reallocate the massive budget you already have.

While we are at it, maybe find out why 4 of the last 5 ODOT projects remain incomplete despite being fully funded. We the taxpayers should be able to trust that when ODOT says a project is essential, and we pay the cost, that that project will be completed.

You already have my money, now use it to complete actual projects and stop trying to pretend this is an emergency that hyperbole is just overplayed
