For real ?

I testified on the LC 2... dumped for HB 3991... and now we have HB 3992, which is like LC 2 and my testimony should be re-instated for all 3 .

.People are done with the shell games... around and around the shells go and in the end it is the taxpayer who loses either way the game goes.

Watching the news I see Bus Admins looking forward to the ODOT funding... because we all know the money is not for potholes.

This has been the worst ran session I have seen since 2012 and I been to them all... your tone deaf to the people should you pass funding for the ODOT funding.

NO NEW TAXES ought to be simple enough to understand.

When someone dares to throw clown noses on the floor from the balcony and it makes OPB news that night... you should take it to heart why a person things your a clown show.
