What part of an aroused citizenry don't you get. Democrats? The internet and email are amazing things, they allow people to highlight the thieves among us and expose them. Are that dumb to think you can raise people's taxes, not let them vote on it and there will not be blowback affecting you? I suggest you look around your office so when the election results come in you can remember what it looked like. Or when the recall is finished you don't have to stop and think what might have been. Stupid decisions have consequences. Stealing the peoples wealth is an unpardonable crime that will be punished Are you sure you want to go down that road? Vote No against HB3992 or not Your choice your consequences!
