Dear Co-Chairs Senator Rob Wagner, Representative Julie Fahey, Vice Co-Chairs Senator Daniel Bonham, Representative Christine Drazen, and Committee Members,

I strongly oppose HB 3991.

Oregonians don't have an endless stream of wealth. We're not debit machines from which to withdraw. We're hard-working, have budgets and need our income to provide for our families. Like individual households, the state needs to prioritize wisely and work within its means. It's unjust to strip individuals of their livelihoods by raising taxes—a seemingly unending "necessity."

As a tax-paying Oregonian I urge you to:

- Honor the Principle of Private Property
- Cut wasteful spending
- Prioritize spending and work within the state's current budget

I don't consent to the conditions of HB 3991 and expect the Principle of Representation, aligned with the American Principles of Liberty, to be correctly applied. Thank you.

Respectfully,
Heather Hall
