I think the 95% of the people has spoken. We the people demand no new taxes. Oregon is not a dictatorship and by passing a bill that the majority of the people you work for say no, is full blown dictatorship. We can not afford new taxes. What does 22 new positions that will have to pay for indefinitely do for Oregonians? Just like the CAT tax, Oregon voted it down 3 times but Brown being the little dictator she was pushed it through. Speaking up for the 95% of Oregonians that said no for new taxes. We can not afford it. Start spending the taxpayers money wisely instead of thinking the money will be there indefinitely. Soon other people money runs out, what happens then, tax who is left? It is time to rain in the out of control spending. I know this happens because I see it first hand.
