Dear Representative,

I oppose the transportation bill HB3992. I believe you should clean house and reorganize what you already have before you start or continue to spend Oregonians money. There needs to be an audit and a Doge moment before a tax increase is implemented. There is no doubt funding has to be issued but it should be put to a vote of the Oregonians. Please do the hard work instead of the “water flows to the lowest spot” approach.

Sincerely, Elaine Kempenich
