I adamantly oppose this measure of a host of reasons, but namely the gross inability of this administration to be able to manage the budget they were previously provided and then have the audacity to 1. not provide transparency for their spend and 2. ask for an even more money (an insane amount of money) without doing what any normal organization would do - a self-audit and reductions from within. This could not be a more blatant attempt to put government self-interest above what Oregonians have already rejected.
