To Whom it May Concern,

For the third time I am writing in opposition of the bills trying to be shoved through the legislature on Labor Day weekend 2026 concerning MORE TAXES on the Oregon people.

Even though a super majority of the Oregon people are in opposition to these hideous laws, the governor is trying to go behind our backs and get them passed.

I will say it as many times as I must: NO NEW TAXES.

There is money in the budget that should be allocated to helping solve ODOT's mess. People, including the governor, MUST live within their means and not just taxing and spending.

I will urge everyone who votes to watch who votes yes and in the next election cycle, vote them out.
