I've lived in and loved Oregon for over 19 years - my entire adult life. What I've seen during this time is the quality of life of Oregon's citizens decreasing rapidly, while taxes are inclining steeply. Oregonians have rolled up our sleeves and worked harder to try to compensate. But we can't keep up. A tax increase - the likes of which have never been seen in Oregon - would devastate Oregonians. It's time for the leaders of Oregon to actually lead - roll up your sleeves, and figure how to work with what you have. We can't give you any more. We won't give you any more.
