I am astounded and upset that our legislature is poised to pass a major tax bill without the support of Oregon voters. This is not the Oregon where I was born and raised, nor spent most of my adult working life. There was a time public servants understood their purpose. Every representative and senator who votes for this bill has forgotten, or is ignoring this. I am embarrassed for our state. I will do what I can to prevent the reelection of any one of you who votes for this bill--H3991. You are causing hardship and there is nothing noble about that.
