

I oppose SB 916 because unemployment benefits are supposed to be for laid off or furloughed workers not workers who voluntarily leave their job for a strike. It puts striking workers at an unfair advantage over employers. There is no incentive to negotiate a settlement. It's like a paid vacation for striking workers.