

Submitter: Kara Colley

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

In 2023, the Portland Teachers strike lasted nearly a month. It was prolonged and divisive. Providing unemployment benefits to striking workers would further remove any incentive to find a resolution. This bill is not in the interest of students who bear the burden of prolonged teacher strikes.

And this year, the Albany Teachers strike also lasted nearly a month. Do you want teachers strikes to last 2 months? 3 months? Vote no on this.