

Submitter: Shawna Blix
On Behalf Of: ONA
Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business
Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

Financial hardship has been a barrier to many union workers being able to fight for a fair contract, thus giving corporations an unfair advantage to bargaining knowing they can hold that financial power over getting a fair contract. With this bill I think it would discourage more strikes from happening because corporations would have a little more pressure to bargain in good faith.