

Submitter: Alexandra Griego

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB916

Strikes are the only means of negotiations that bring about any real change in a workplace. Forcing people to choose between improving rapidly deteriorating work environments and being able to afford food guarantees that those in positions of power will continue to abuse their absolute control over workers. Please pass this, we need it now more than ever.