HB3075

I am opposed to HB 3075. Oregon is considered one of the states that has some of the most gun control regulations, and yet we still have high crime in the cities. The laws always being pushed seem to only affect law abiding citizens. Criminals don't obey laws. No law put into place will affect criminal behavior. Our jails and prison populations prove that. It is not right or just to make criminals out of the only people who are actually obeying the laws. You only have to read the news to see how many felons are arrested in possession of a firearm. They do not care how many laws you pass they won't obey them. Don't make things harder on us law abiding gun owners in this state. I urge you to oppose this bill and focus on punishing the people who are already violating many of Oregon's gun laws already
