HB3075

With all the gun laws already on the books,that the criminals are not being charged with or could care less about.why do you think this law going to make a difference,its only going to affect the law abiding public. That is going to have to jump through a bunch of hoops that the state to this day has not been able to get the training in place or even the so called permits to get a firearm. Sounds to me that the state wants to make Oregon a no purchase of firearms state. That is totally unconstitutional.
